

Thiago Alves

With 10 years of drumming and 23 of living, Thiago Alves is the perfect blend of "the virtuous" and "the show-man". Perfectionist to the bones in his technique and allied to a strong rock'n'roll spirit, he stands out in his concerts and portraits what separates a good musician from an artist.

In the last four years, Thiago has dedicated himself to Prelludium (Prog Metal Band from Rio de Janeiro) and played regularly on Rio de Janeiro's nights with the band A Maqna with an impressively high average of gigs - over 40 per semester.

Ten years of musical partnership and friendship with the bassman and producer Luiz Freitag granted Thiago the invitation on January 2010 to become a member of Empürios. In no time, Thiago proved to be the right choice and the band is in its best shape for the new album's tour.

Even being young, Thiago is referred to in the latest years as one of the best heavy metal drummers in Rio and is promised to be amongst the great Brazilian heavy-metal drummers.
