

EMPURIOS

Renata Decnop e Iury Alonso

- Heaviness & Expression -

Two guitar players of different origins shape up the 7-string duo for Empürios. From the unique riffs and rhythms backed up by bass and drums or in remarkable solos and lead themes, the arrangements throughout the album "Cyclings" are the perfect ground for the identity of each to be strongly marked. Renata Decnop and Iury Alonso share of musical chemistry worth of musicians that play together for years, not to mention an over the top stage intimacy.

Renata Decnop

Co-founder and idealizer of Empürios, Renata Decnop proves that being a woman in rock'n'roll is not only about beauty and having attitude – music quality and identity are basis. With its unique tone, target of jealousy amongst most guitarists in Heavy Metal, she leads the heaviness and expression of the guitarwork of Empürios. Renata Decnop also works as a Musical Producer and co-produces the album along with Luiz Freitag, by Musark Prod.

Iury Alonso

At the age of 18, with the charisma and accuracy of several years, Iury Alonso needs no clichéd adjectives as in “virtuous”, or “guitar-hero”, and just lets his guitar speak for himself. Disciple of the well known Brazilian guitarist - Alex Martinho -, Iury was part of 2009's reality show "Geléia do Rock" (Multishow) and gathered several compliments throughout his stay in the show. In an unique and unpredictable way, the naturality in which Iury's guitar merged into Empürios' agenda and future directions, besides the quality he added, were key points for building up the identity of the band.

He's a young, strong hearted musician with a true rock'n'roll spirit. His attitude and ambition are just what you would expect from a first caliber guitarist.
